

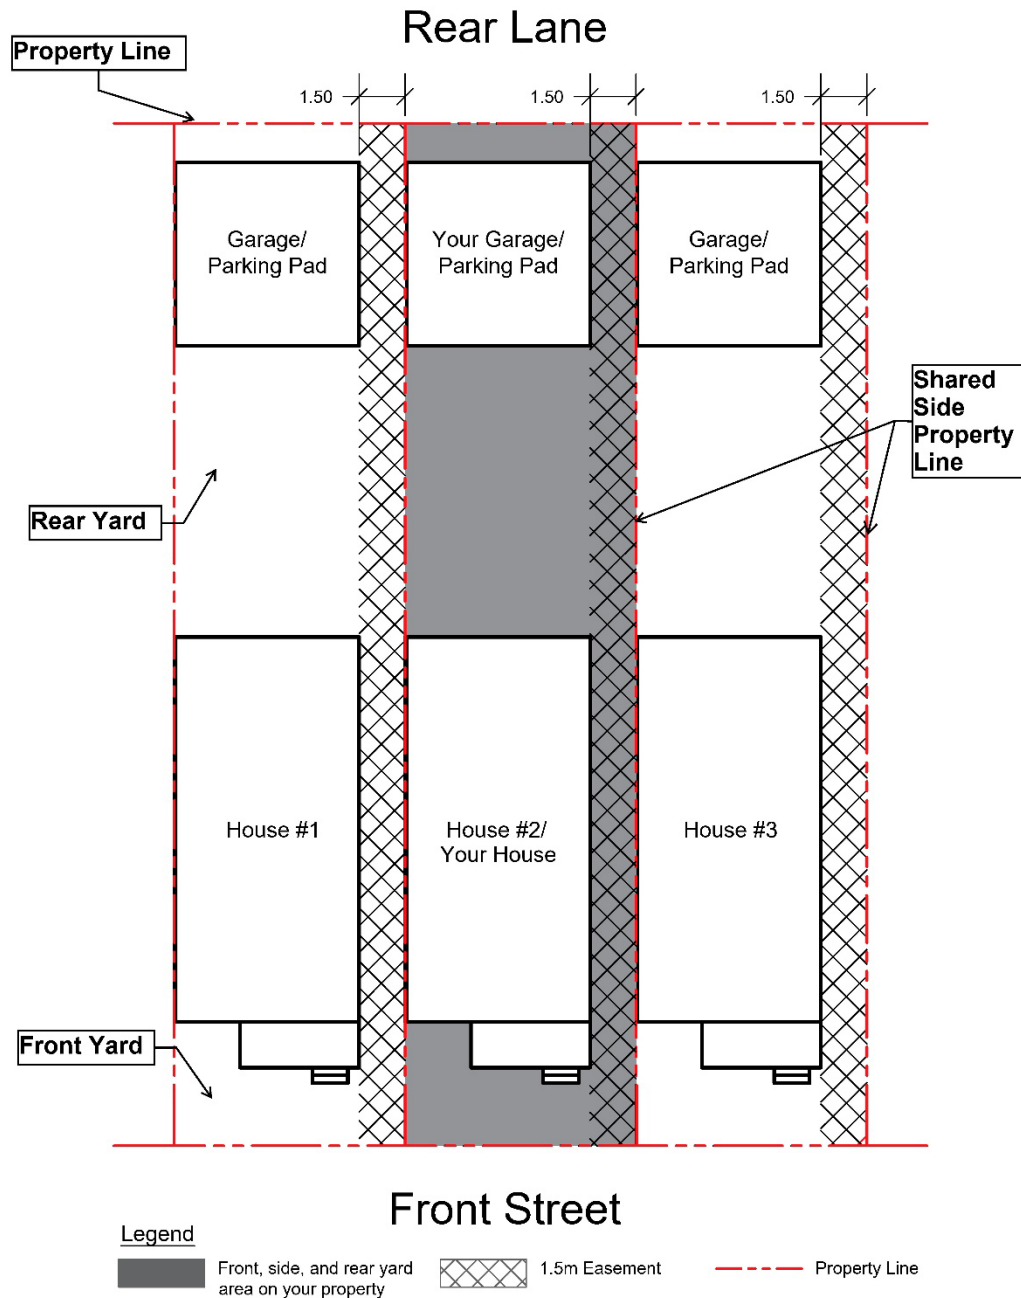

Diagram 1: Zero Lot Line properties with 1.5 metre (5 feet) easement

- House #1 has a 1.5-metre easement on its property that allows the owner of House #2 (you) access to maintain your house or garage, without asking for permission. You also have full access to your property within the grey area.
- House #2 (your house and garage shown on a grey background to depict the extent of your property), has a 1.5-metre allowing your neighbour (House #3) a legal right to access the easement on your property to maintain their house or garage.
