Sherritt Cultural Pavilion - Volunteer Information

Thank you for your interest in giving back to your community! The Dow Centennial Centre, Sherritt Cultural Pavilion has numerous volunteer opportunities available for everyone! With flexible hours and the ability for you to choose your level of commitment, volunteering with us can be a great way for students, working adults and retirees to experience something new. So, fulfil your sense of adventure and volunteer today!

Volunteer Opportunities

- Shell Theatre – Ushers, Ticket Takers
- Art Gallery – Gallery Docent (host)
- Special Events – Access Control, Meet & Greet Assistant, and more!

Shifts vary in length, depending on the show, but are typically about 3 hours in length. Generally evenings and weekends, but many daytime shifts are available in the spring!

Benefits

- Get acquainted with a new community and meet new people
- Make a difference about something you care about
- Try something new, while building your resume and gaining experience
- Enjoy a large variety of entertainment experiences (see shows!)

Volunteers Rights

- To be treated in a courteous and respectful manner.
- To work in a safe environment and to only accept work for which they feel trained and comfortable doing.
- To choose your availability and your time commitment
- To be recognized for their efforts

Volunteers Responsibilities

- To be committed to ensuring the safety and security of the public and any person directly or indirectly associated with The Sherritt Cultural Pavilion.
- To contact the Volunteer Coordinator well in advance, if they are unable to make their shift.
- To dress in accordance with the Volunteer dress code (white shirt, black pants, closed toed black shoes)

We would love to help you find a volunteer role that best fits your interests, skills, and passions. Please fill out a volunteer application form, or stop by the Shell Theatre to chat!
