Parachute National Injury Prevention Day

WHEREAS; July 5, 2022, will mark Parachute's sixth annual National Injury Prevention Day (NIPD): a day to raise awareness around the importance of injury prevention and help Canadians to live long lives to the fullest through education and advocacy; and,

WHEREAS; Parachute is Canada's national charity dedicated to reducing the devastating impact of preventable injuries and in 2022 is celebrating its 10th anniversary; and,

WHEREAS; Unintentional injury is the No. 1 killer of Canadians aged 1 to 34 and costs the Canadian economy $29.4 billion a year; and,

WHEREAS; most injuries are predictable and preventable, and Parachute raises awareness on preventing injuries on the road, at home, and at play; and,

WHEREAS; by providing the necessary information and tools, Parachute continues to work diligently to ensure that one day Canada will be free of serious injuries,

NOW, THEREFORE; I, Gale Katchur, on behalf of City Council, do hereby proclaim July 5 as National Injury Prevention Day in the City of Fort Saskatchewan.

Mayor Gale Katchur
