MAY RECAP

In May 2026, the Fort Saskatchewan RCMP focused on supporting the physical and mental wellbeing of Fort Saskatchewan residents. The theme, “Come Together, Canada: Stronger Connections, better mental health” was chosen by the Canadian Mental Health Association because social connection is one of the most powerful buffers against mental health challenges.

May kicked off with Emergency Preparedness Week – A national initiative that encourages Canadians to be ready for emergencies before they happen. Residents are encouraged to come up with an emergency plan to help them to act quickly, stay connected and reduce stress as well as an emergency supply kit. Details can be found on the Government of Canada website.

National Policing Week - This annual initiative led by the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police highlights the importance of building public trust and confidence with the communities we serve. It reminds us that we're all working toward the same goal of a safer Alberta for everyone, particularly as we continue adapting to the challenges of a changing policing landscape.

The City of Fort Saskatchewan announced the appointment of Staff Sergeant Scott Lande as the new Detachment Commander and Officer in Charge of the Fort Saskatchewan detachment.

Coffee with a Cop was held on the 27th. Over 40 residents connected with officers and members of the Fort Saskatchewan Policing Committee, sharing concerns, asking questions, and building relationships over coffee.

Alberta Citizens on Patrol (COP) is a community-based volunteer group that works in partnership with the RCMP to help reduce crime and improve community safety. COP members serve as an extra set of "eyes and ears" in the community by observing and reporting suspicious or unusual activity to the RCMP. Volunteers receive training before participating in patrols.

If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information about Alberta Citizens on Patrol, please contact your local COP group or RCMP detachment.
