MAYOR'S MESSAGE

LISA MAKIN
Mayor, City of Fort Saskatchewan

Welcome to the 2026-27 season at the Shell Theatre.

The arts help bring a community to life. They give us opportunities to connect, share experiences, and celebrate what makes our city special. As Fort Saskatchewan continues to grow, I am proud to see our arts and culture community growing alongside it.

This season offers something for everyone. From music and comedy to theatre, magic, and family programming, audiences will have the chance to experience incredible performances from artists across Canada and around the world, right here in Fort Saskatchewan.

What makes the Shell Theatre especially meaningful is the way it creates opportunities for local talent to shine. Whether it's enjoying a Rare Form Theatre production, celebrating 20 years of Fort's Got Talent, or visiting the Alberta Lottery Fund Art Gallery, there are many ways to support and enjoy the creativity that exists within our own community.

As someone who took drama throughout high school and even performed in a murder mystery with a local theatre group, I am especially proud of the arts facility we have here in Fort Saskatchewan. The Shell Theatre showcases everyone from amateur performers taking the stage for the first time to award-winning professional artists. You really can't go wrong with a show at the Shell Theatre.

It's a place where memories are made, stories are shared, and people come together. With a range of performances and affordable ticket options, I encourage you to explore this season's lineup, try something new, and experience all that the Shell Theatre has to offer.

I look forward to seeing you there.

ABOUT OUR SEASON

Our Shell Theatre team is proud to present a vibrant new season that celebrates not only world-class performance, but the incredible spirit of our community. This year brings amazing talent from around the world to our stage, while continuing to strengthen the deep connection between artists and audiences that makes the Shell Theatre experience so special.

By popular demand, we welcome back familiar favourites with exciting new programs, including Aaron Goodvin with Tony Stevens, Tenille Townes, and Jake's Gift—artists audiences know and love, returning to share new stories and music. Music fans will also experience a true icon as Tom Morello, Rock and Roll Hall of Famer, Grammy Award winner, and one of the greatest guitarists in the world, takes the stage.

The holiday season shines brightly with something for everyone. Enjoy the return of beloved traditions like Leahy's Celtic Roots and Christmas Cheer, alongside Michelle Wright's "Christmas Is Here!", and a powerful new production of "A Christmas Carol", featuring narration and a 30-person choir by Pro Coro.

JOSH GENNINGS
Supervisor, Shell
Theatre & Events

Community remains at the heart of everything we do. Local talent takes centre stage with Rare Form Theatre's "Arsenic and Old Lace" and the milestone 20th anniversary of Fort's Got Talent, showcasing the passion and creativity of Fort Saskatchewan. Theatre continues to thrive through productions like Jake's Gift, Bangs, Bobs & Banter, family day programming with Dufflebag Theatre, and our Acting Up for the Fall initiative, nurturing the next generation of performers.

From nostalgic musical journeys to powerful local storytelling, this season is a celebration of connection, creativity, and community—right here at the Shell Theatre.

DARCY OAKE

I L L U S I O N I S T

In a world where everything can be explained, this is one of the few experiences that cannot.

Darcy Oake brings his full-scale theatrical illusion show to the stage—an electrifying live experience that blends breathtaking visuals, impossible feats, and cinematic storytelling.

This is not traditional magic.

Objects appear, vanish, and transform in ways that defy logic. People disappear and reappear inches from where you're sitting. Moments unfold in real time that feel impossible to process—and even harder to forget.

And long after it ends... you'll still be trying to figure out how it was done.

jake's gift

A Canadian WW2 veteran reluctantly returns to Normandy, France, for the 60th anniversary of the D-Day landings. While revisiting the shores of Juno Beach, Jake encounters Isabelle, a precocious 10-year-old from the local village whose inquisitive nature and charm challenge the old soldier to confront some long ignored ghosts - most notably, the war-time death of his eldest brother, Chester, a once promising young musician. At its heart, Jake's Gift is about the legacy of remembrance and personalizes the story behind one soldier's grave.

TOM MORELLO: A NIGHT OF STORIES & MUSIC WITH SPECIAL GUEST IKE REILLY

Rock God. Justice fighter. Rabble-rouser. Ivy Leaguer. An American renegade and fearless truth teller. Rage Against the Machine's guitar virtuoso, Tom Morello, is many things; but perhaps, he himself, sums it up best: a one-man revolution. For the first time ever, hear Morello fuse the deeply personal with the political in a rapturous, badass, one-man show that skillfully balances soul-bearing stories with spellbinding guitar fury.

About Tom Morello:

Grammy-winning, Harvard-educated, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inducted artist, songwriter, and activist Tom Morello is living proof of the transformative power of rock'n'roll. Known for his innovative guitar solos and thunderous chords, Morello is a groundbreaking artist both in his solo career and as an original member of the rock bands Rage Against the Machine and Audioslave - two acts responsible for multiple Grammy Awards and a combined 30 million albums sold worldwide. His trademark style was a crucial component of Rage Against the Machine, helping launch Morello and the band to Grammy-winning, multi-platinum success, which in turn led to his recognition by Rolling Stone Magazine as the 18th "Greatest Guitar Player of All-Time" and subsequent induction into both the Rock & Roll and Metal Hall of Fame. After not just one but two multi million selling bands, Morello's signature guitar can be heard in the supergroup Prophets of Rage and with his 6-year stint in Bruce Springsteen's E-Street Band.

ALEX CUBA

It's a strange thing, watching audiences sing along with Alex without speaking his native Spanish. But they do.

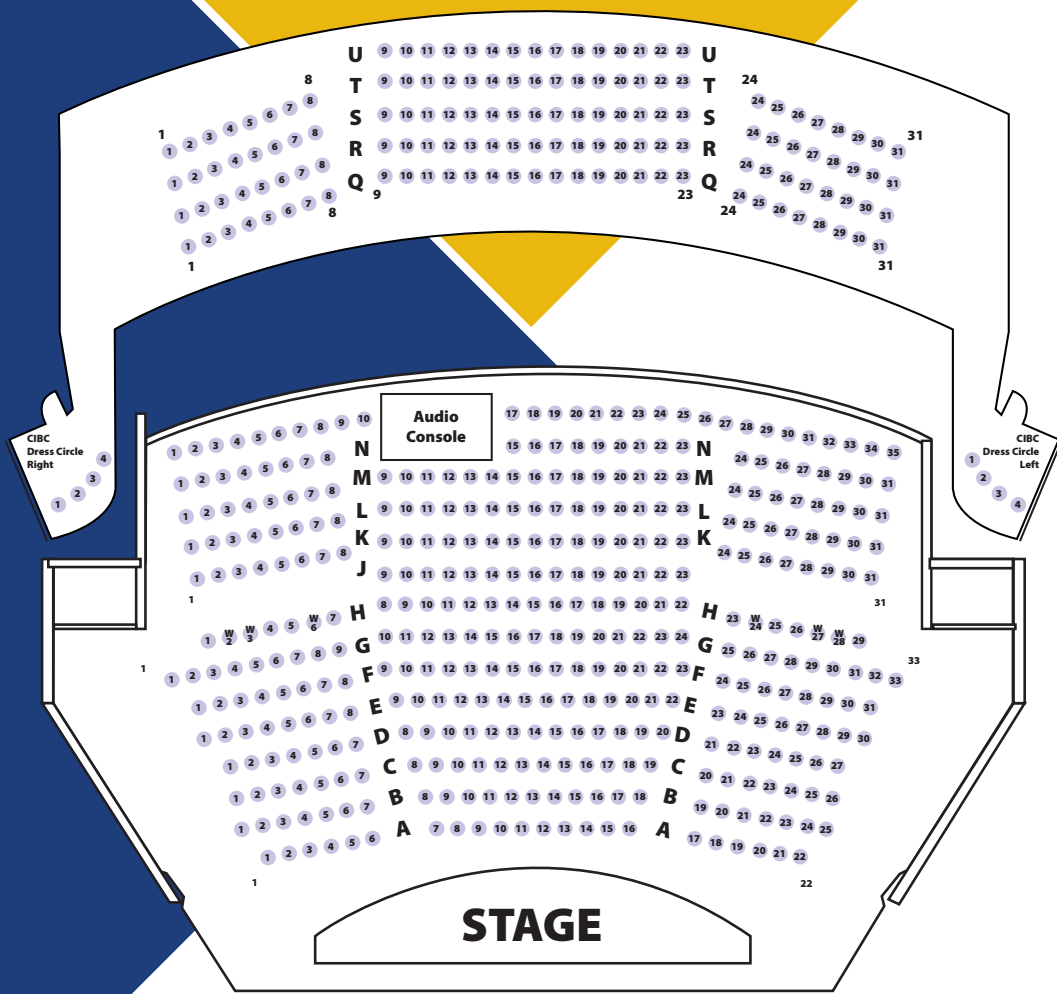

They "la-la-la" their way from chorus to chorus, caught up in his inescapable gravitational pull. His warm, elastic vocals float above a sound essentially from everywhere—an effortless mix of Funk, Soul, and pan-Latin textures—and no matter where you're from, you can't help it. You're home. "la-la-la" with us in a special night with this multi-Juno award, and Grammy award winner.
